EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Carson Times has suspended publication. Niles has this to say in the Carson Index:

Conscious of having ministered faithfully to a generous army of advertisers; a valued corps of subscribers and a cheerful squad of dead-headers—and also with the belief that the Times has been lively, enterprising and moderately entertaining; its editor and publisher extends his sincere thanks to all who so generously aided its vigorous career, and with malice toward none, and with charity toward all, will soon enter a new field of labor, trusting, at some future time to profit by experience and with ample capital again enter the editorial ranks.

The Times was bright and newy. If Carson falls off some more she will soon have no more papers than Chicago.

The Ruby Hill News says: "The Silver State thinks John W. Mackay might desire to be Governor of Nevada. We have it from good authority that he does not desire anything of the kind. He proposes, however, that a friend of the Bonanza men shall succeed Kinkaid, and therefore Daggett and Deal will be the nominees. In the event of the election of either, this result will be secured. Securing the two nominees is a more feasible plan than making a fight for one at the polls, besides there is no risk."

Just so, James.

A telegram from Congressman Page was received at the Treasury Department Tuesday requesting permission for an expert accountant to examine the books and papers of the San Francisco Mint in advance of the assembling of the Investigating Committee to be appointed by Secretary Windom. It has been decided to deny the application. The personnel of the Committee will be announced this week.

Secretary Windom said yesterday that he would probably be prepared to appoint a Committee to investigate the charges preferred against Superintendent Dodge of the San Francisco Mint, within a few days, and that he had already telegraphed to a gentleman asking him if it would be convenient for him to serve, and that he was awaiting a reply.

The bon mots of the great men concerning each other must not be permitted to go down into oblivion. Conkling says of Blaine: "He is the only President we ever had who has never been inaugurated." Blaine says of Conkling: "My relations with him are the pleasantest imaginable. I have not spoken with him for ten years."

The Sacramento Bee says: "It becomes tiresome to pick up exchanges and see every now and then resolutions of respect, commencing: 'Whereas it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom, thus making the Lord responsible for the death of every alcoholic suicide that had murdered himself by over indulgence.'"

A Mississippian, now sojourning in California, thinks the South is the best part of the United States for a poor man to make a living and better his condition. He says: "Our western country has great resources, and California is the garden spot of it, but it cannot possibly compete with the Southern States in supplying the poor man's wants."

The Republicans of the Second District of South Carolina refrained from voting at the special Congressional election to fill the vacant seat of Mr. O'Connor, claiming that Mackey was really elected last fall. Samuel Dilbe was chosen without opposition.

Dilbe no doubt believes in a free ballot and a fair count.

Another Nihilist proclamation has been issued from the office of the Nihilist journal, The Will of the People, called "Trial and Torture," and declaring that the assassins of the late Czar were tortured before execution, Rousakoff having informed the crowd to that effect while on his way to the scaffold.

It is reported that the publication of the report of the Committee, now in the possession of Secretary Windom, will reveal a system of petty larceny that has been practiced for several years in the disbursement of the Treasury Contingent Fund.

The Philadelphia Times remarks that "Roscoe Conkling can now be distinguished from other men only by the beautiful curl which hangs over his forehead. All other signs of greatness are gone."

Peter Lemon of Detroit, who decided to submit to a surgical operation for the removal of a lizard from his stomach, died Tuesday.

Nevadans can point to this occurrence as a justification for keeping the snakes in their boots.

The Carson Tribune of the 15th says: We hope the Supreme Court will render a decision soon in the Asylum case. Clarke sees $150 each day that matters are held back.

The testimony so far in the New York bribery case goes to show that the Dewey men used money. That would not be tolerated for a moment in Nevada.

Fred Hart has purchased an interest in the Daily Stock Report. Hart attained considerable fame as author of the Sazerc and other lies. He also wrote a book.

A five-mile race for $5,000, in 18-foot lapstreak boats, has been arranged between Hanlan and Rosa, and will probably take place near Toronto.

Speaking of Iroquois' victory for America; the Derby winner never before won the Prince of Wales stakes as well.

Fifteen thousand people gathered at Fayetteville, Arkansas, to see the first train enter that city on the St. Louis road.

New Hampshire will not elect a U. S. Senator until 1883.

Griscom, the Chicago faster, lost three-quarters of a pound yesterday, and 25 pounds since the beginning of his fast, eighteen days ago, weighing now 173 1/2 pounds.

Mays and Overholz, two road agents under life sentence passed through Chicago for Auburn, N. Y., it being necessary to give them safer quarters than the Idaho prisons.

The admission receipts to the Long Champs Course, on the occasion of the Grand Prix de Paris race, amounted to nearly $50,000, the greatest amount ever taken at the course.

The Globois states such a number of peasants are emigrating from the Government of Tomak to Siberia, because of their poverty, that the ferry over the Volga is scarcely able to transport them.

A Hartford dispatch says: Private advice received from China, says: A new minister to this country has been appointed to take the place of Chin Lan Pin. His name is Chiang tsan Yu.

Lieutenant James B. Lockwood, United States army, with fifteen men, sailed from Baltimore for St. Johns, New Foundland, to join the steamer Proteus, of the Greenly expedition to Lady Franklin Bay.

In the Chamber of Deputies Tuesday a grant of 14,000,000 francs for Tunisian expedition was voted. General Farre, Minister of War, declared the object was to secure the influence of France and the safety of Algeria, and this has been granted.

Western Nevada may blow about her crooked railroad, says the Pioche Record, but Lincoln county can boast of the longest and crookedest smoke-stack that is in existence. ## Anecdote of Mayday Taylor.

A writer in the Chicago Dial relates the following anecdote of Bayard Taylor: "Speaking of Taylor's reading his own poetry reminds me of an anecdote that he told me about Tennyson, whose style of reciting verse he imitated to my hearty delight. While he and his wife were visiting Tennyson, some years ago, at the Isle of Wight, in conversing about the laureate's poems, Taylor said that he could never read aloud the scene of the parting of Guinevere and Arthur in the 'Idylls of the King' without breaking down. 'I can,' said Tennyson, confidently, 'let me show you.' And there in the sacred upper room of his house, before his wife and guests, he began. 'As he went on with his deep, sonorous voice, chanting like an old British bard, and was getting into the pathetic part,' Taylor said, 'as I glanced around, Mrs. Tennyson was in tears. My wife was vainly attempting to repress her emotion, a great lump came into my throat, my own eyes filled, Mr. Tennyson's voice was becoming more and more tremulous and husky, till finally he choked with feeling and broke down utterly. 'I thought I could do it,' was the only explanation of his failure."

A Torment of Chinese.

This promises to be a great year for Chinese immigration to various parts of the world. The Canadian Pacific Railroad has given orders for the hiring of 6,000 Chinese laborers, the Northern Pacific will take several thousands, and 1,500 are wanted for railroad grading in Mexico. Three agencies in China are said to be busy hiring men under contract. For the Hawaiian Islands, where the Chinese are very numerous, 8,000 more are packing up; their destination, being the extensive and still growing sugar fields. Five thousand are expected in Australia, where disturbances are reported to have occurred in consequence among the white laborers. There is no doubt that the Pacific States and Territories would in any event have urged speedy legislation by Congress on the Chinese question, but these reports of unusual preparations for swarming from the Asiatic beehive will be likely to make them all the more earnest about it.

Postmaster Outlier Designs.

Springfield, Republic.
Silas Outler, of Burlington, Mass., next to the oldest postmaster in the United States, has resigned. He was appointed in 1833, and his salary has never reached $40 a year. He says in a letter to the Postmaster-General: "I have been Postmaster here for nearly fifty years. I am getting old and feeble, and I wish to be relieved of the care of this office, and should like, as soon as may be, my discharge. I cannot find any one here who is disposed to take the office for the compensation which I have received." The office has accordingly been discontinued.

Illustrated by the Acro.

Milledgeville Recorder.
Mr. John Tucker relates the following: Several nights ago, on a portion of this plantation, there was a shower of rain. Next morning acres of land was covered with what is known as spring lizards. There were bushes of them all around, and covered the ground so thickly that the negroes could hardly find a clear spot on which to eat their breakfast. By noon they were all dead.
